LOCATION

The Railway Hotel is found at the heart of a thriving village nestled between the famous North Pennines and Northumberland National Park. Situated 25 miles west of Newcastle Upon Tyne and accessed via the A69, Haydon Bridge is surrounded by popular attractions, famous country walks, holiday accommodation and popular cycle routes.

The property is an end of terrace public house situated in a beautiful village. This two-storey property was fully refurbished to a high standard in 2015, in a style that is sympathetic to the age of the building. Understood to date from the mid 19th century, it is of stone construction under a pitched slate roof and boasts attractive rendered walls.

The property briefly comprises:

ACCOMMODATION

Located on the ground and first floors are five EN SUITE LETTING ROOMS comprising FOUR SPACIOUS DOUBLE BEDROOMS and a well proportioned TWIN room.

To the rear is large KITCHEN, UTILITY ROOM and guest WC. The KITCHEN is well equipped with stainless steel commercial appliances and a washing up area.

The basement houses the CELLAR and DRY STORAGE.

The property is presented in excellent condition and is very busy as holiday lets. There is also the potential to convert the property back into a large family home (subject to the relevant planning permissions).
